

775 Field Quick Reference Sheet

With RDA, much of the information about related editions we used to record in notes should now go into the 775 field. This is a linking field which will help create the vital pathways between works, expressions, and manifestations in our next-generation bibliographic systems.

UCSD policy:

Use the 775 field with the appropriate relationship designator from RDA Appendix J to describe reproductions and revised editions where the title has changed. Otherwise, use catalogers' judgment in deciding to provide information about other works, expressions, etc. When using a 775 field, a 5xx note is not necessary.

Examples:

Revised edition where the title changed (relationship designator in 775‡i from RDA J.3.2)

Other categories where 775 fields could be useful (see RDA Appendix J for the relevant relationship designator):

- Sound recording reissues
- Facsimiles
- Manuscript vs. published editions
- Frequency editions
- Language editions (For translations use 765 or 767)
- Adaptations, abridgements, etc.

Use caution, however. Not all WEMI relationships will be recorded in a 775 field. See the MARC21 Format for Bibliographic Data 76X-78X Linking Entries section for more guidance on which MARC fields to use.
